

GROWING MHAP'S
FAMILY TREE
TO AMPLIFY IMPACT

The overall goal of the Maternal Health Alliance Project is to identify broadly applicable strategies, approaches, and methodologies for systematically improving health service implementation and accelerating reproductive, maternal and newborn health progress. The most important component of the MHAP project is to build partnerships and collaborations both within and beyond CARE so the learning from this project is shared broadly and amplified for greatest impact.

Roll over the boxes in the tree to reveal additional information. Click on the boxes to hide the information.